A3.2 Decision-Making by Board Directors

A3.2.1 Board Directors to Take Decisions Collectively

A3.2.1.1 The general rule about decision-making by Board Directors is that any decision of the Board Directors must be either a unanimous decision or a majority decision.

A3.2.1.2 Subject to the articles, the Board Directors –

- a) may take either a unanimous decision or a majority decision on any matter, and
- b) may, but need not, take any decision at a Board Directors' meeting

A3.2.2 Unanimous Decisions

A3.2.2.1 The Board Directors take a unanimous decision when they all indicate to each other that they share a common view on a matter.

A3.2.2.2 A unanimous decision:

- a) may be taken without any discussion between Board Directors, and
- b) may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each Board Director

A3.2.3 Majority Decisions Without Board Directors' Meeting

A3.2.3.1 This article applies where a majority decision is not taken in a Board Directors' meeting.

A3.2.3.2 The Board Directors take a majority decision if:

- a) a Board Director has become aware of a matter on which the Board Directors need to take a decision;
- b) that Board Director has made the other Board Directors aware of the matter and the decision;
- c) the Board Directors have had a reasonable opportunity to communicate their views on the matter and the decision to each other; and
- d) a majority of those Board Directors vote in favour of a particular decision on that matter.

A3.2.3.3 But if a Board Director is aware that consultation with another Board Director will make it impossible to take a particular decision as soon as the Company's business requires, that Board Director:

- a) may decide not to communicate with that other Board Director in relation to that decision before it is taken, but
- b) must communicate the decision not to communicate to all the other Board Directors as soon as is practicable, explaining the reasons for it.

A3.2.3.4 And if a Board Director states that he does not wish to discuss or vote on a particular matter, the Board Directors may choose not to communicate with that Board Director in relation to decisions to be taken on that matter.

A3.2.3.5 Board Directors participating in the taking of a majority decision otherwise than at a Board Directors' meeting:

- a) may be in different places, and may participate at different time, and
- b) may communicate with each other by any means

A3.2.4 Calling a Board Directors' Meeting

A3.2.4.1 Meetings shall be arranged in accordance with Section A2.2.

A3.2.5 Quorum for Majority Decisions

A3.2.5.1 No majority decision (other than a decision to call a Board Directors' meeting) shall be taken by the Board Directors unless a quorum participates in the decision-making process.

A3.2.5.2 The quorum for Board Directors' decision-making shall be in accordance with Section A2.3.2.

A3.2.5.3 If the total number of Board Directors for the time being is less than the quorum required for Board Directors' majority decision-making, the Board Directors must not take any majority decision, but request the Member to appoint further Board Director(s) in accordance with the Member's Constitution.

A3.2.6 Chairing the Majority Decision Making Processes

A3.2.6.1 The Chair of the Company is appointed in accordance with the Member's Constitution.

A3.2.6.2 If the Chair is not participating in a Board Directors' meeting within ten minutes of the time at which it was to start, the participating Board Directors must appoint one of themselves to chair it. The person chairing the meeting in accordance with this article is referred to as the "chair of the meeting."

A3.2.7 Casting Vote

A3.2.7.1 A casting vote shall only be applied in accordance with Company Rule Section R16.3.3.

A3.2.7.2 But a casting vote rule shall not apply if the views of the specified Board Director are to be disregarded as a result of an actual or potential conflict of interest.

A3.2.8 Conflicts of Interest

A3.2.8.1 If a proposed decision of the Board Directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company in which a Board Director has a direct or indirect interest, that Board Director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for voting or quorum purposes.

A3.2.8.2 But if paragraph A3.2.8.3 below applies, a Board Director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company:

- a) is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process, and
- b) is entitled to vote on a proposal relating to it.

A3.2.8.3 This paragraph applies when:

- a) the Company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the articles which would otherwise prevent a Board Director from being counted as participating in, or voting at, a Board Directors' meeting;
- b) the Board Director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or
- c) the Board Director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

A3.2.8.4 For the purposes of this article, the following are permitted causes:

- a) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a Board Director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- b) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for securities of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-write, or guarantee subscription for any such securities; and
- c) a contract about benefits for employees and Board Directors or former employees and Board Directors of the Company of any of its subsidiaries which does not provide special benefits for Board Directors or former Board Directors.

A3.2.8.5 For the purposes of this article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any Board Directors' meeting or part of a Board Directors' meeting.

A3.2.8.6 If a question arises at a meeting of Board Directors or of a committee as to the right of a Board Director to vote, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chair of the meeting whose ruling in relation to any Board Director other than the Chair is to be final and conclusive.

A3.2.9 Records of Decisions to be Kept

A3.2.9.1 The Board Directors must ensure that the Company keeps a record, in writing, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Board Directors for at least ten years from the date of the decision recorded in it.

A3.3 Appointment of Board Directors

A3.3.1 Methods of Appointing Board Directors

A3.3.1.1 Any person who is willing to act as a Board Director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a Board Director in accordance with the Member's Constitution.

A3.3.2 Termination of Board Director's Appointment

A3.3.2.1 A person ceases to be a Board Director as soon as

- a) that person ceases to be or is prohibited from being a Board Director by law;
- b) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;
- c) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debt (whether by means of an individual voluntary arrangement or otherwise)
- d) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Board Director and may remain so for more than three months;
- e) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would normally have;
- f) a notification to the Company that that person is resigning or retiring from office as a Board Director takes effect in accordance with its terms;
- g) that person receives notice signed by all the other Board Directors stating that that person should cease to be a Board Director.

A3.3.3 Board Directors' Remuneration

A3.3.3.1 Board Directors may undertake any services for the Company that the Board Directors decide.

A3.3.3.2 Board Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Member determines –

- a) for their services to the Company as Board Directors, and
- b) for any other service which they undertake for the Company.

A3.3.3.3 Subject to the articles, a Board Director's remuneration may –

- a) take any form, and
- b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of an allowance or gratuity, in respect of that Board Director.

A3.3.3.4 Unless the Board Directors decide otherwise, Board Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

A3.3.3.5 Unless the Board Directors decide otherwise, Board Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Board Directors of the Company's subsidiaries.

A3.3.4 Board Directors' Expenses

A3.3.4.1 The Company must pay reasonable expenses which the Board Directors properly incur in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Company.

PART A4 MEMBERSA4.1 Becoming and Ceasing to be a Member

A4.1.1 The sole member of the Company shall be the SASA (also referred to throughout these Articles of Association as the "Member") or its successor who is the subscriber to the Memorandum of Association of the Company.

A4.2 Member's Reserve Power

A4.2.1 The Member may, by special resolution, direct the Board Directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

A4.2.2 No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Board Directors have already done.

PART A5 ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTSA5.1 Organisation of General Meetings

A5.1.1 The Company shall not hold General or Extraordinary General Meetings, but will report to and participate in the General and Extraordinary General Meetings of the Member.

A5.1.2 Changes to the Company Articles may only be made as defined in the SASA Constitution Section C4.1.2.

A5.1.3 Changes to the Company Rules may only be made as defined in the SASA Constitution Section C4.1.3.

A5.2 Means of Communication to be Used

A5.2.1 Subject to the articles –

- a) anything sent or supplied by or to the Company under the articles may be sent or supplied in any way which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information to be sent or supplied by or to the Company for the purposes of the Companies Acts, and
- b) any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a Board Director in connection with the taking of decisions by Board Directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that Board Director has asked to be sent or supplied with notices or documents for the time being.

A5.2.2 A Board Director may agree with the Company that notices or documents sent to a Board Director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

A5.3 Addresses and Other Contact Details

A5.3.1 Anything sent to a member under the articles may be sent to that member's address in the register of members, unless –

- a) the member and the Company have agreed that another means of communication is to be used, and
- b) the member has supplied the Company with the information it needs in order to be able to use that other means of communication.

A5.3.2 Any notice or document sent to a Board Director may be sent to that Board Director's address as registered in the register of Board Directors, unless –

- a) the Board Director and the Company have agreed that another means of communication is to be used, and –
- b) the Board Director has supplied the Company with the information with the information it needs in order to be able to use that other means of communication.

A5.4 No right to Inspect Accounts and Other Records

A5.4.1 Except as provided by law or a person nominated by the Member, no person is entitled to inspect any of the Company's accounting or other records or documents merely by virtue of being a member.

A5.5 Provision for Employees on Cessation of Business

A5.5.1 The Board Directors may decide to make provision for the benefit of person employed or formerly employed by the Company or any of its subsidiaries (other than a Board Director or former Board Director or shadow Board Director) in connection with the cessation or transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the Company or that subsidiary.

A5.6 Indemnity

- A5.6.1 Subject to the provisions of the Act but without prejudice to any indemnity which may otherwise be available, every Board Director, Managing Director, auditor, secretary or other officer of the Company shall be entitled to be indemnified by and out of the assets of the Company against:
- a) all charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by him in the execution and discharge of his duties or in relation thereto; and
 - b) any liability incurred by him in:
 - i) defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is not given against him; or
 - ii) in connection with any application in which relief is granted to him by the Court from liability for negligence, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to the affairs of the Company.
- A5.6.2 The Company may purchase and maintain for any officer or auditor of the Company insurance against any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the Company.

A5.7 Company Income, Property and Payment

- A5.7.1 The income and property of the Company whensoever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Company as set forth in the Company Articles and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, gift, bonus or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to the Members, officers or servants of the Company. PROVIDED that nothing herein shall prevent
- a) The payment in good faith of reasonable and proper remuneration to any Member, officer, or servant of the Company in return for any services actually rendered to the Company, or outlays properly incurred on its behalf.
 - b) The payment in good faith to any Member, officer, or servant of the Company including members of its Board of Directors of out of pocket expenses incurred by him in or about the performance of his duties.
 - c) A reasonable and proper rent for premises let by any Member of the Company or its Board of Directors.

A5.8 Liability of Members

- A5.8.1 The Member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Company in the event of the same being wound up while a Member, or within one year after ceasing to be a Member, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted before ceasing to be a Member and of the costs, charges, and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors among themselves, such amount as may be required not exceeding £1.

A5.9 Dissolution of Company

- A5.9.1 Notwithstanding Section A5.7, if upon the winding up or dissolution of the Company there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities any property whatsoever the same shall be paid to or distributed to the sole Member of the Company, which is The SASA. Insofar as possible, there shall be a reasonable relationship between the amount to be so paid or distributed to the sole Member and the amount originally contributed by the sole Member.

- R10.8 Awards shall be presented in accordance with the SASA Constitution Section C11.0.

R11.0 PROTESTS

R11.1 Scope

- R11.1.1 All Protests shall be made to and dealt with by the Company.
- A protest may be made by a competitor, or an individual acting on a competitor's behalf, in the following circumstances:
- R11.1.1.1 If the rules/regulations for the conduct of the competition as organised by the Company are not observed.
- R11.1.1.2 If other conditions endanger the competition and/or competitors as organised by the Company.
- R11.1.1.3 Against a decision of the Referee as appointed by the Company.
However, no protest shall be allowed against decisions of fact.
- R11.1.2 In Diving, a verbal protest may be made by the appropriate individual (see Section R11.1.1) immediately after the execution of a dive, a round of dives or a section of the contest. If the verbal protest is not accepted, a formal protest may be made.
- R11.1.3 A protest may not be made against a decision of the Referee or any other official regarding placing, fouling or any other facts of a competition.

R11.2 Procedure - Referee

- R11.2.1 The Referee is responsible for dealing with protests during an event.
- R11.2.2 If conditions causing a potential protest are noted prior to the competition a protest must be lodged before the signal to start is given, otherwise the protest must be lodged within 30 minutes following the conclusion of the respective event or match.
- R11.2.3 A protest must be submitted:
- To the Referee
 - In writing
 - By the appropriate individual (see Section R11.1.1)
 - Together with the appropriate fee
- R11.2.4 A referee rejecting a protest must give the reason for their decision in writing. The appellant may appeal to the Jury of Appeal, which shall be appointed as defined in Company Regulations.
- R11.2.5 If the protest is rejected, the fee will be forfeited to the management body of the competition. If the protest is upheld, the fee will be returned.

R11.3 Procedure - Jury of Appeal

- R11.3.1 A Jury of Appeal shall consist of at least three individuals. Each jury member shall have one vote (except as provided in Section R11.3.2) and in the case of equality of voting the Chair may exercise a casting vote.
- R11.3.2 A jury member is allowed to speak but not to vote on a case in which the interest of their own District or Club is involved. A jury member having acted as an official is not allowed to vote on a case.
- R11.3.3 The Jury of Appeal shall be appointed as defined in Company Regulations.

R11.4 Treatment - Jury of Appeal

- R11.4.1 The decision of a Jury of Appeal is final.

R12.0 COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS GENERALR12.1 Objectives

- R12.1.1 The object of the Complaints and Appeals Rules (hereinafter referred to as the “Rules” in Company Rules Sections 12, 13 14 and 15) is to ensure overall justice through fair, consistent, impartial and independent decisions in the determination of disciplinary proceedings and complaints.
- R12.1.2 The Rules also seek to ensure that decisions are reached in an expeditious manner for all involved.

R12.2 Jurisdiction

- R12.2.1 The Rules shall apply to all Members of Scottish Swimming including all Clubs, Persons, all office bearers of Scottish Swimming and all coaches, officials, volunteers and anyone registered, affiliated or associated with Scottish Swimming in any capacity.
- R12.2.2 The decisions reached further to the Rules shall be observed and applied by all.
- R12.2.3 The Rules shall apply to hear and determine
- a) Complaints;
 - b) Appeals;
 - c) Any dispute or matter referred to Scottish Swimming for which there is no express procedure provided for and which the Board are content to have determined.
- R12.2.4 Complaints in respect of Clubs, Districts, Disciplines and/or Teams (e.g. Composite, Combined, Competition etc.) shall be determined with reference to the principles outlined in these Rules.

R12.3 Complaints Panel, Complaints Committees and Appeals Committees

- R12.3.1 Refer to Section R1.3.2.1 for the Complaints Panel appointments process.
- R12.3.2 When required to convene a hearing the Head of Panel shall ordinarily appoint three members of the Panel to sit as a Complaints Committee and designate one person to be the Chair of the Committee. The quorum for all Committees shall be two persons.
- R12.3.3 Any member of the Panel who sits on a Complaints Committee shall not be eligible for appointment to an Appeals Committee arising out of the same incident.
- R12.3.4 All decisions of the Complaints and Appeals Committees shall be by majority. If there is an even number on the committee then the casting vote shall lie with the Chair of the Committee. No member of a Committee may abstain.
- R12.3.5 If a member who has been selected to sit on a Committee indicates that they are not willing or are unable to do so, then the Head of Panel has discretion as to what to do. They may appoint a replacement or instruct that the matter is to be heard without a replacement.
- R12.3.6 Meetings and any business of Committees may take place in one or more places, by letter, e-mail, webcast or telephone or by other convenient means. Meetings may also take place through a combination of these methods. Parties to a complaint can request that a personal hearing takes place in which case the Chair of the Committee shall consider that request and refuse or grant the request. If granted, the Chair of the Committee shall seek to ensure that the members convene as soon as practicable.
- R12.3.7 No member of the Panel may sit in determination of a Complaint to which they have a close association with the Member, Person, Club, victim or complainant in question, or in relation to matters on which they have previously expressed an opinion, or otherwise may have a conflict of interest. Members not sitting in proceedings shall not express any interest in or any opinion on or make any comment on those proceedings (whether publicly or privately).

R12.4 Complaints Officer

- R12.4.1 The Company Board shall also appoint a Complaints Officer whose responsibility includes (without limitation):-
- a) receiving and reviewing Complaints;
 - b) deciding whether a Complaint should go before the Panel;
 - c) encouraging parties to adopt alternative dispute resolution (in the correct circumstances);
 - d) undertaking such investigations as they see fit into matters that may form the basis of a Complaint;
 - e) deciding whether to attend at a hearing further to these Rules (and if so to attend);
 - f) administering appeals on behalf of Scottish Swimming.

R13.0 COMPLAINTSR13.1 Complaints Proceedings

R13.1.1 Proceedings shall be brought by means of a "Complaint".

R13.1.2 A Complaint shall concern:

- a) Any breach of Scottish Swimming Governance documentation or any other behaviour alleged to be contrary to the interests of Scottish Swimming as a whole.
- b) Breach of any code of practice, code of ethics, code of conduct, equality policy, equity policy, or any other code, rule or policy published from time to time by Scottish Swimming or that is otherwise adopted by Scottish Swimming.
- c) Any alleged breach of any other policy of Scottish Swimming or any other body to which Scottish Swimming may be affiliated with or a member of and to which the party is expected to comply.
- d) Any applicable in-water offending or out-of-water offending that amounts to misconduct of a more general nature.
- e) Any conduct which may be considered by the Complaints Officer likely to bring aquatic sports in Scotland into disrepute or is considered to be detrimental to the best interests of aquatic sports in Scotland and/or the development of the interests of aquatic sports in Scotland.
- f) Conduct by any person or body who is subject to these Rules that amounts to a breach of these Rules.

R13.1.3 Certain types of Complaints made to or by Scottish Swimming may be subject to specific measures in how they are dealt with. These include:-

- a) Any Complaint that amounts to or is connected to a breach of any relevant anti-doping rules shall ordinarily be referred to British Swimming however, a Complaint can still be taken further to these Rules should it be considered appropriate (whether in substitution or in addition to action by British Swimming).
- b) Any Complaint may be pursued notwithstanding that a separate criminal investigation and/or criminal proceedings may be ongoing.

R13.1.4 Complaints may be initially presented to Scottish Swimming by:

- a) Any Member;
- b) A parent or guardian on behalf of a Member under the age of 16 years;
- c) A parent or guardian on behalf of a Member classified as a Vulnerable Person, defined as a person who lacks sufficient capacity to present a complaint by themselves;
- d) Any affiliated Club;
- e) The Complaints Officer;

R13.1.5 If a person has a complaint to make regarding the interpretation or application of a District, Club or Team's constitution or a District, Club, Team or Discipline's rules/regulations, that complaint must be made to the District, Club, Team or Discipline. A District, Club, Team or Discipline's decision may possibly be capable of being appealed to Scottish Swimming, further to section R14.

R13.2 Complaints Involving Child Abuse or other Criminal Offences

R13.2.1 If the complaint involves wellbeing or protection, vulnerable group protection or other criminal offences the complaint shall be referred to the Company within 48 hours. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action. The Chief Executive Officer, Scottish Swimming Legal Advisor, Director of Services and the Chair of the Company Board shall deal with such cases as appropriate.

For such cases No fee is required and the initial contact need not be in writing.

R13.2.2 Upon receipt by the Company of:

- a) notification that an individual has been charged with an Offence; or
- b) notification that an individual is the subject of an investigation by the police, social services or any other authority relating to an offence; or
- c) other evidence which causes the Chief Executive Officer to reasonably conclude that an individual may have committed an Offence

then in any such case the Chief Executive Officer may impose upon the individual an interim suspension from any event or activity promoted or authorised by the Company or any body directly or indirectly affiliated to the SASA or the Company wherever held.

R13.2.3 In reaching their determination as to whether an interim suspension should be imposed the Chief Executive Officer shall give consideration to, inter alia, the following factors:

- a) whether a child or children or young persons(s) is/are or may be at risk;
- b) whether a member of a vulnerable group may be at risk;
- c) whether the allegation(s) is/are of a serious nature;

- d) whether a suspension is necessary or proportionate to allow conduct of any investigation (by the Company or any other authority or body) to proceed unimpeded.
- R13.2.4 Where an individual shall have been convicted or have been the subject of a caution in respect of an Offence the Chief Executive Officer shall have power to impose summarily either or both of the following penalties:
- the withdrawal with immediate effect of any licence granted by the Company, which the individual may hold;
 - the life suspension of the individual from any event or activity promoted or authorised by the Company or any other body directly or indirectly affiliated to the SASA wherever held.
- There shall be a right of appeal under this Section R13.2.4.
- R13.2.5 Without prejudice to the generality of Section R13.2.4 the Company may from time to time issue guidance or directions with regard to compliance with Section R13.2.4.

R13.3 Making a Complaint and Complaints Procedure

- R13.3.1 To present a Complaint to Scottish Swimming the complaint must be set out in writing and sent to the Complaints Officer.
- R13.3.2 The written notice of Complaint must include:
- The grounds of Complaint;
 - The basis for the Complaint;
 - The person or party complained of;
 - What, if anything, has been done to attempt to resolve the Complaint informally;
 - A list of the witnesses to the matters complained of;
 - A list of all documents produced in support of the complaint;
 - The documents produced in support of the complaint; and
 - The appropriate fee.
- R13.3.3 The written complaint must reach the Complaints Officer not later than 30 days after the incident which gave rise to it. Notwithstanding that a Complaint must ordinarily be referred to the Complaints Officer within 30 days of the incident which gave rise to it the Complaints Officer can decide to extend the time for presenting a Complaint to the Complaints Officer and receive a complaint late provided that they are satisfied that a reasonable explanation has been provided for the late presentation of the Complaint.
- R13.3.4 On receipt of a Complaint it shall be at the sole and unfettered discretion of the Complaints Officer to decide whether a Complaint is:-
- Investigated further;
 - A decision be made for alternative dispute resolution to be pursued;
 - Put before the Panel in order that it may be determined by a Complaints Committee; or
 - Rejected and no further action be taken.
- R13.3.5 In deciding what to do with a Complaint, the Complaints Officer shall be entitled to take into account any issue that they consider relevant and may make any assessment or determination that they consider appropriate including (without limitation) assessing the possible validity of the complaint and whether the complaint is unjust, malicious, vexatious or being unreasonably brought, is unfounded or wholly unfounded.
- R13.3.6 No person shall complain to the Complaints Officer, make any other protest or otherwise seek to put pressure on the Complaints Officer in relation to the decision to bring, or not bring, a Complaint or any other decision made further to paragraph R13.3.4. Acting contrary to this rule may amount to misconduct further to these Rules and may result in a Complaint.
- R13.3.7 If the Complaint is rejected, the Complaints Officer shall be under no obligation to notify the party against whom a Complaint was initially made either that a Complaint had been made to Scottish Swimming or that it was rejected. Equally the Complaints Officer shall be under no obligation to keep a Complaint made to the Complaints Officer confidential at any stage. It shall be a matter for the Complaints Officer as to what to do.

R13.4 If Investigation

- R13.4.1 The Complaints Officer shall be entitled to conduct such investigation into a Complaint as the Complaints Officer sees fit and all persons and parties subject to these Rules shall cooperate fully with the same. Failure to co-operate may amount to misconduct.
- R13.4.2 The Complaints Officer shall thereafter be entitled at any time to decide to refer a Complaint to the Panel, take no further action or order that alternative dispute resolution be pursued.

R13.5 If Alternative Dispute Resolution Pursued

- R13.5.1 It may be that the Complaints Officer considers that the complaint made may be appropriate for alternative dispute resolution which may include (without limitation):-
- Mediation;
 - Arbitration;

c) Conciliation;

R13.5.2 If the parties agree to follow alternative dispute resolution and the Complaints Officer is prepared to facilitate alternative dispute resolution, the Complaints Officer shall stop any formal proceedings and organise alternative dispute resolution with a view to resolving the Complaint.

R13.6 If Put Before the Panel

R13.6.1 If the Complaint is to be put before the Panel the Complaints Officer shall narrate the Complaint taken and provide all supporting documentation to the Head of Panel. This may or may not include materials provided by the complaining party.

R13.6.2 The Head of Panel shall appoint a Complaints Committee and appoint one of its members as a Chair. The identity of the Complaints Committee, Chair and the venue, date and time for a hearing shall be intimated to the parties to the Complaint and the Complaints Officer.

R13.7 If Rejected

R13.7.1 If the Complaint is to be rejected the Complaints Officer shall:-

R13.7.1.1 Notify the complainer that no further action shall be taken and provide brief reasons for this decision; and

R13.7.1.2 Take no further action.

R13.7.2 The Complaints Officer's decision shall not be capable of appeal but the decision can be reviewed by the Complaints Officer either at the Complaints Officer's own volition or if new evidence comes to light and is presented to the Complaints Officer.

R13.7.3 A decision to not proceed with a Complaint shall not preclude the Complaints Officer from taking that Complaint at a later date.

R13.8 Complaints Hearings - Preliminary Matters, Investigations and Procedures

R13.8.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Rules, the Committee Chair shall be entitled to determine any issue or matter of procedure arising prior to, during or in connection with any hearing and adjust any time limit not otherwise prescribed by the Rules.

R13.8.2 The Committee Chair shall be entitled to make such order(s) he may think appropriate in advance of any hearing, or adjourned hearing, requiring any person or party

- a) to attend at a hearing;
- b) to produce any document or provide any information to any hearing;
- c) to provide in advance of any hearing a written submission or outline of their case;
- d) to provide details of any witnesses who may be called at any hearing;
- e) to provide in advance written statements of such witnesses and any documents or other materials as may be in the possession of such person or party;
- f) to disclose any or all of such to any other parties with an interest in the proceedings;
- g) any other order he considers will assist in securing a just and expeditious outcome.

R13.8.3 The Committee Chair may make such enquiries or direct that such enquiries be made as regards the facts related to any matter for consideration by the Committee Chair

R13.8.4 A Committee may require the production of any books, letters and other documents concerning any matter in relation to proceedings.

R13.8.5 A Committee may be assisted by a secretary, other clerk, legal adviser and/or technical expert. The secretary, clerk, legal adviser and/or technical expert shall be entitled to take part in the proceedings, except that he shall not have a vote. Any advice given by any technical expert shall be disclosed to parties in advance of any determination being made by a Committee and parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to make representations on such advice before any determination is made.

R13.8.6 No later than 72 hours (three working days) prior to hearing the party against whom the Complaint has been made shall enter in writing, to the Committee Chair with a copy to the Complaints Officer, their preliminary response to the Complaint, explaining:-

- a) Whether they accept or deny the Complaint;
- b) Whether they have any preliminary matters to raise;
- c) What, if any, part of the Complaint they disagree with;
- d) What evidence they intend to produce;
- e) Whether they are going to be accompanied by witnesses; and
- f) Whether they intend to be accompanied and/or represented.

R13.9 Complaint Committee Hearing - Procedures and Powers

R13.9.1 At the commencement of the hearing, the Chair shall confirm the identities of the persons admitted to the hearing and introduce the members of the Committee and of any secretary, clerk, legal adviser and/or technical expert assisting the Committee. The Chair shall confirm the nature of the matter or matters in issue before the Committee and confirm what documents and other materials are before the Committee. The Chair shall also outline the procedures to be followed

- during the course of the hearing including the order in which parties shall present their respective cases if more than one is present.
- R13.9.2 Thereafter the procedure shall ordinarily be:--
- a) The Complainant to provide their account of evidence;
 - b) The party against whom the Complaint has been made shall be entitled to respond;
 - c) The Committee may ask questions at any time; and
 - d) Thereafter closing remarks shall be permitted.
- R13.9.3 Parties appearing before a Committee may present evidence by oral or written statement, produce original documents or copies, refer to them and call witnesses.
- R13.9.4 In any case where a witness does not attend at a hearing for whatever reason, the Committee shall be entitled to take account of that witness' evidence as is made apparent to it in any other form. This includes, for example, by telephone, teleconference, video, web conference, recording, affidavit, report or written statement. Witnesses who are not parties or officers of parties shall not be allowed to be present during the hearing except when they are to give evidence. After giving evidence, witnesses shall retire but shall be subject to recall by or with the permission of the Committee Chair.
- R13.9.5 The members of a Committee may ask such questions of any party or witness at any time. There shall be no cross-examination of witnesses by or on behalf of a party, except through or with the permission of the Committee Chair.
- R13.9.6 Generally, where it falls to a committee to make a determination on a matter of principle or liability, determination of same shall be made and communicated to the party or parties concerned, in advance of the consideration and determination of any issue of penalty, remedy, quantum or the like.
- R13.9.7 A Committee shall conduct its deliberations in private.
- R13.9.8 A Committee may reconvene and announce any decision orally to the party or parties.
- R13.9.9 Typically two determinations will be made at a hearing. Firstly, a decision on liability shall be made in relation to upholding the complaint. Secondly, a decision will be taken regarding any sanctions. Both decisions can be taken at the same hearing.
- R13.9.10 The Complaints Committee shall retain the power to adjourn a hearing of its own motion or following an application by any of the parties.
- R13.9.11 A Complaints Committee may, at their discretion, order that any complaint fee may be returned following conclusion of a hearing.
- R13.9.12 A Committee shall be entitled to determine any matter before it notwithstanding that a party invited or entitled to attend shall fail, decline or shall elect not to attend and/or present any evidence and/or make any representations at or to a hearing.

R13.10 Sanctions – Suspensions and Fines

- R13.10.1 A Committee may make whatever order of disposal that it considers just, including the imposition of financial penalty and/or exclusions/suspension for a period.
- R13.10.2 Upon determining that a Complaint has been established, the Committee may:-
- a) give a warning as to future conduct;
 - b) give a reprimand;
 - c) impose a fine;
 - d) order any party to pay compensation to any Club, person or party;
 - e) order any party to comply with any obligation or direction;
 - f) order any party to undergo training or some other form of rehabilitation;
 - g) order that a party be suspended from membership for a period of time or until a condition has been met;
 - h) order that a party be expelled from membership;
 - i) make such other direction, sanction or disposal, not expressly provided for in these Rules, as it shall think appropriate;
 - j) make such order as to reimbursement of any complaint fee as the Committee sees fit.
- R13.10.3 When imposing a direction, sanction or disposal the Complaints Committee may apply such number and combination of the directions, sanctions and/or disposals provide for as it thinks appropriate, may make such provision for time to comply with any one or more of same as it thinks appropriate, may defer for such period or until such event as it shall think appropriate the decision on or imposition of a sanction or sanctions and shall be entitled to suspend the effect of any such direction, sanction or disposal for such period and/or on such conditions as it thinks appropriate.
- R13.10.4 The Complaints Committee may decide to return any complaints fee whether or not the complaint is upheld.
- R13.10.5 In any case where a complaint is upheld the record of any previous offences of the party concerned shall be considered before the Panel concludes its decision on the imposition of a sanction.

- R13.10.6 When imposing any suspension further to these Rules the Committee shall have regard to all of the circumstances of the case and any prior cases, however, the Committee shall be in no way bound or constrained by any prior case sanction.
- R13.10.7 A person under suspension shall not participate in any activity organised by a Club or under the jurisdiction of Scottish Swimming save that where it is considered appropriate a person may be given a limited suspension provided the limitation(s) are clearly defined (for example, a person may be suspended from all competition activities but allowed to continue in training and administration activities).
- R13.10.8 For the avoidance of doubt a Swimmer, Club or Official taking part in a competition held by an unaffiliated Club or body except as permitted in R5.1.5(b) may be suspended. In addition an eligible competitor taking part in competitions, exhibitions or demonstrations with someone whom they know to be under suspension may themselves be suspended.
- R13.10.9 Suspensions by the Complaints and Appeals Committees shall be binding on all Clubs and Districts of Scottish Swimming.
- R13.10.10 Suspensions and the lifting of suspensions shall be reported to Clubs, Districts and to British Swimming/FINA as appropriate.
- R13.10.11 When a fee or fine (not subject to appeal) due to be paid to Scottish Swimming has not been paid on time, the Complaints Officer may apply to the Head of Panel to impose a provisional suspension pending payment of the fine. No further hearing shall be required to impose any such suspension however the Head of Panel shall ordinarily provide the party with an opportunity to respond to the request. In addition and without prejudice to the foregoing Scottish Swimming shall be entitled to deduct from any monies due to the party for any reason and at any time any monies outstanding (in the form of any fee or fine) in satisfaction of the same.
- R13.10.12 Any sanction imposed on a competitor or any other person by FINA, by or recognised by a National Federation affiliated to FINA or a continental body recognised by FINA or the ASA or by WASA, shall be recognised by the SASA. An appeal may be made against the recognition by the SASA and enforced in Scotland of a sanction imposed by the ASA or WASA.
- R13.10.13 When an appeal is made:-
- The decision shall ordinarily remain and the disposal shall ordinarily remain in place;
 - On or after lodging an appeal the appellant shall be entitled to ask that the decision and disposal (including sanction) is stayed pending determination of the appeal;
 - The Head of Panel shall consider the request and decide whether the earlier decision and disposal is to be stayed pending the hearing of the appeal;

R13.11 Sanctions – Interim Suspensions

- R13.11.1 The Head of Panel may of his or her own volition recommend to the CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER that an interim suspension order is imposed if they feel it is appropriate. The Complaints Officer can also bring to the attention of the CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER any concern that they may have and suggest that an interim suspension order is imposed. The CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER shall be entitled to decide whether or not to impose an interim suspension order.
- R13.11.2 In cases involving allegations of doping or a breach of safeguarding rules, an interim suspension should be imposed automatically pending the outcome of proceedings.
- R13.11.3 Interim Suspensions shall be valid for the full duration of disciplinary proceedings or otherwise until revoked. They do not represent a disciplinary measure of themselves.
- R13.11.4 Interim Suspensions may be reviewed in exceptional cases where an argument for the suspension to be lifted can be made.

R13.12 Notification of Decisions

- R13.12.1 The Complaints Committee shall notify its written decision to the relevant parties to a Complaint as soon as is practicable following the conclusion of a hearing.
- R13.12.2 Oral notification may be made of any determination and rights of appeal at the conclusion of a discipline hearing if the Committee considers this to be appropriate.
- R13.12.3 In notifying a disciplined person of their determination the Complaints Committee shall ordinarily advise them of their right to appeal under this policy and the relevant timeframes for them to do so.

R14.0 APPEALSR14.1 Scope

- R14.1.1 An Appeal can be taken against a decision of a Complaints Committee by any party to the original proceedings in respect of which the decision is made or the Complaints Officer as an interested person on one or more of the following grounds:-
- That the decision was made in error either as to the facts or in law;
 - That the sanction imposed was manifestly unreasonable or manifestly excessive; or
 - That the interests of justice require the decision to be overturned or varied.
- R14.1.2 An Appeal can be taken to be heard by the Appeals Committee against any decision of a Club by any party to the original proceedings in respect of which the decision is made or the Complaints Officer as an interested person in respect of:-
- That the Club failed to follow its own procedures and that the procedural error resulted in the wrong determination or the determination is otherwise demonstrably unsafe;
 - There has been a breach of natural justice and that the breach resulted in the wrong determination or the determination is otherwise demonstrably unsafe; or
 - That any other error in decision-making has resulted in the wrong decision being reached provided always that
 - the error can be demonstrated to be sufficiently serious and material so as to render the original decision wrong or unsafe and
 - that the decision taken affects the appellants rights and/or interests beyond their own Club or
 - the interests of Scottish Swimming as a whole are served by the hearing of an appeal.
 - That the sanction imposed was manifestly unreasonable or manifestly excessive.
- R14.1.3 An Appeal shall be made by lodging the appeal with Scottish Swimming by no later than 14 days after receipt of the written notification of the decision:-
- Marked for the attention of the Complaints Officer;
 - In writing;
 - Setting out the grounds of appeal relied upon;
 - The basis of the appeal (being the full reasons); and
 - Accompanied by the appeal fee.
- R14.1.4 When required to convene a hearing the Head of Panel shall ordinarily appoint two members of the Panel to sit along with the Head of Panel as an Appeals Committee, or three members of the Panel to sit as an Appeals Committee and designate one of those persons to be an Appeal Chair. The quorum for all Committees shall be two persons.
- R14.1.5 The Head of Panel shall be entitled to dismiss an appeal where in the Head's opinion the appeal is incompetent or is otherwise unmeritorious and stands no reasonable prospects of success.

R14.2 Appeals Committee

- R14.2.1 Subject to the above the Appeals Committee shall have power to regulate its own procedure in line with the purpose of reaching an expeditious and just outcome.
- R14.2.2 Appeals may be determined by way of written representations and without any need for a personal hearing. This will be at the discretion of the Appeals Committee.
- R14.2.3 If a personal hearing takes place then the appealing party is entitled to be present and to have their legal representative, if any, present at the hearing along with the Complaints Officer (and any legal representative they may choose to bring).
- R14.2.4 Appeals shall ordinarily proceed by way of review.
- R14.2.5 A re-hearing of any first instance cases shall only be permitted if the Appeals Committee decides that a new hearing is necessary.
- R14.2.6 New evidence shall only be permitted on appeal if the Appeals Committee is satisfied that the evidence was not available on or prior to the first hearing on reasonable enquiry.
- R14.2.7 The Appeals Committee shall have the following powers upon hearing an appeal:
- To affirm the appealed decision;
 - Uphold the appeal in full or in part.
This may include setting aside the appealed decision, fully reducing a penalty or modifying a decision to increase a penalty or suspension;
 - To substitute the decision appealed against for another.
This may include substituting the offence or penalties for lesser or more severe sanctions;
 - To uphold the appeal and remit it to the Complaints Committee for reconsideration and determination; and/or
 - To take any steps that the Committee feels are appropriate to justly and expeditiously deal with the Appeal.
- R14.2.8 Deliberations of the Appeals Committee will be held in private.
- R14.2.9 The decision of the Appeals Committee shall ordinarily be issued in writing following the hearing.

R14.2.10 The decisions of Appeals Committees shall be final and binding on all parties and persons and there shall be no further right of appeal within Scottish Swimming available to any party or person.

R15.0 COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS HEARINGS PROTOCOLS

R15.1 Rules of Evidence

R15.1.1 Committees shall not be bound by any rule of evidence in general.

R15.1.2 Committees shall be entitled to receive, consider and call upon such evidence as they deem appropriate in making a determination on a case. A Committee shall be entitled to accord to evidence such weight as seems to the Committee proper having regard to the quality of the evidence and the reliability and credibility of same.

R15.1.3 Such evidence may include:

- a) Evidence whether in writing, audio/visual or photographic;
- b) Evidence from experts in any form including opinions;
- c) Evidence from any source and on any topic including the law.

R15.1.4 The Committee Chair shall obtain from Scottish Swimming the record of previous offences, if any, of the alleged offender if the Complaints Officer is not in attendance at the hearing. It shall be supplied in an inner sealed envelope which shall only be opened once sanction is to be considered.

R15.2 Attendance and Questioning of Witnesses

R15.2.1 Ordinarily it shall be the responsibility of a party wishing to bring a witness in support of their case to secure that witness' attendance at the hearing.

R15.2.2 Any Committee established further to these Rules may require the attendance of any person to attend at a hearing.

R15.2.3 If any person required to attend either refuses or fails to do so then the Committee may choose to:

- a) Proceed in that person's absence;
- b) Adjourn the hearing;
- c) Allow or refuse to allow any evidence of that person to be given in another form (if the person is a witness);
- d) Direct that the witness who has not attended be made the subject of misconduct proceedings.

R15.2.4 Witnesses will not be cross-examined by any persons present at a hearing, except by members of the Committee.

R15.2.5 Other persons present at any such hearing are permitted to ask questions addressed to the witness in question through the Chair and with the permission of the Chair of either Committee.

R15.2.6 At any hearing the Committees of Scottish Swimming shall be entitled to ask such questions of any witness as they consider necessary for deciding the matter.

R15.3 Standards and Burdens of Proof

R15.3.1 The relevant standard of proof for all proceedings shall be on the balance of probabilities.

R15.4 Representation

R15.4.1 A party appearing at a hearing shall be entitled to be represented by a representative of their choosing provided that

- (i) the representative is available and can attend; and
- (ii) the representative is not in any way conflicted from attending as a representative.

R15.4.2 The Complaints Officer shall also be entitled to seek the help of any person in discharging the Complaints Officer duties and shall be entitled to nominate any person to carry out any function or power invested in the Complaints Officer by these Rules whether in substitution of the Complaints Officer or in addition to the Complaints Officer carrying out such duties. For the avoidance of any doubt the Complaints Officer shall be entitled to be accompanied at any hearing by legal representation.

R15.5 Publicity

R15.5.1 Scottish Swimming will be entitled to publish details of any proceedings taken under these procedures including the identities of the parties concerned, the findings, determination and/or sanction determined in any matter.

R15.5.2 Any committee appointed further to these Rules may recommend to Scottish Swimming that any matter be publicised.

R15.5.3 Except with the express approval of the Chair of the Committee, no Committee member shall make any statement or disclosure to any third party concerning any event which took place at a hearing and any statement made or document or other materials considered during or in connection with a hearing further to these Rules.

R15.6 Multiple Incidents

- R15.6.1 If proceedings, howsoever arising, are taken against or concern more than one party and are connected in some manner then those proceedings may be heard together either on the application of any party, Scottish Swimming or the Committee appointed in the matter.
- R15.6.2 For proceedings to be conjoined the Head of Panel shall determine the application and decide whether such cases should be heard together. One consideration for the Head of Panel shall be whether or not conjoining proceedings would cause undue prejudice or injustice to any of the parties against whom proceedings are being taken.

R15.7 Additional Provisions

- R15.7.1 Notwithstanding these Rules, a Committee shall have the power to regulate the hearing procedures adopted by it and in so doing any may deviate from the hearing procedures in these Rules as it considers appropriate and expedient so as to dispose of any matter before it justly and expeditiously.
- R15.7.2 No finding, decision or determination taken further to these Rules shall be quashed or held invalid by reason of any defect, irregularity, omission or technicality unless such results in a material doubt as to the reliability of the finding, decision or determination, or would otherwise result in a miscarriage of justice.
- R15.7.3 Any matter arising which is not provided under these Rules shall be decided in accordance with the general principles of natural justice and fairness and having regard at all times to the overriding objectives of this policy.
- R15.7.4 As the Committees shall also have power to regulate their own procedures in the event that any situations arise which are not governed by this policy, or if in their discretion it appears necessary for the interests of justice to deviate from these Rules. This will be competent so long as such deviation does not result in a disproportionate or unjust outcome for the party subject to a complaint.
- R15.7.5 Committees will have discretion to adopt modified procedures in cases involving young or vulnerable persons.
- R15.7.6 In any case, whether questions arise concerning the interpretation of Rules of a District Association, or Club, the Chair of the relevant Committee may seek (but need not seek) the opinion in writing of the relevant District or Club President as to the rules.
- R15.7.7 As a general rule all parties shall bear their own costs and expenses.

R16.0 STANDING ORDERS

R16.1 Chair & Quorums

- R16.1.1 Chair
The rules covering the Chair of meetings are included within the relevant paragraphs of the SASA Constitution, Company Articles and Company Rules relating to each meeting.
- R16.1.1 Quorum
The rules covering the Quorum for meetings are included within the relevant paragraphs of the SASA Constitution, Company Articles and Company Rules relating to each meeting.

R16.2 Annual, General and Delegates Meetings

- R16.2.1 The Standing orders in this section shall apply to Annual, General and Delegates meetings
- a) Scottish Swimming
General Meetings
 - b) SASA Districts
General Meetings
Delegates Meetings
- R16.2.2 The general rule is that any decision made by the meetings in Section R16.2.1 must be either a unanimous decision (Section R16.4) or a majority decision (Section R16.5).
- R16.2.3 In the event of there being an equality of votes on a motion which requires a decision (choice) to be made for the continued good governance of Scottish Swimming the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.
- R16.2.4 The Chair shall not speak to, support or oppose a motion from the Chair. If the Chair wishes to do so, they must vacate the Chair before the motion is moved and until that business is concluded the Chair shall be taken by the appropriate individual determined by the meeting rules.
- R16.2.5 The Chair's ruling on questions of order or procedure shall be final unless it is challenged. No such challenge shall stand unless at least the following numbers, of those entitled to vote, indicate their support for such a challenge:

- a) for Scottish Swimming meetings - at least 30 individuals.
b) for SASA District meetings - at least 30% of the individuals present.
Thereafter a motion "That the Chair's ruling shall stand" will be put without discussion. The Chair's ruling shall only be reversed by at least a two-thirds majority of those present and voting.
- R16.2.6 The approval of at least two thirds of those present and voting is required to:
- Alter the order of business.
 - To submit an alteration to a motion.
 - To allow any individual to address the meeting who is not otherwise entitled to do so.
- R16.2.7 A motion must be in the affirmative.
- R16.2.8 A motion must be seconded immediately after the mover's speech. If there is no seconder, the proposition falls.
- R16.2.9 If any motion on the Agenda is not moved by the proposer or other individual entitled to take part in the proceedings and vote when it is called by the Chair, it shall be considered as dropped and may not be carried forward to later in the meeting.
- R16.2.10 No speaker may speak more than once on any motion except in the following circumstances:
- The mover of an original motion shall be entitled to reply at the end of the discussion before the motion is put to the vote and even if they have spoken on any amendment to the motion.
 - An individual who has already spoken may propose a motion of order or make a point of order, subject to Sections R16.2.17 and R16.2.18.
 - Speakers who consider they have been misunderstood shall be allowed, at the discretion of the Chair, to make an explanation.
- R16.2.11 A motion once seconded may only be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the seconder.
- R16.2.12 An amendment must not directly negate the original motion nor shall it have the effect of introducing a new proposal, for which notice of motion would be required.
- R16.2.13 If an amendment is carried, it shall become or form part of the substantive motion.
- R16.2.14 The following motions of order shall have priority and shall be taken without discussion.
- That the vote now be taken
 - That the meeting does now adjourn
 - The meeting has no confidence in the Chair.
- R16.2.15 The motions of order set out in Section R16.2.14 do not require to be seconded with the exception of (c), which also requires the following numbers, of those entitled to vote, to indicate their support for such a motion.
- for Scottish Swimming meetings - at least 30 individuals.
 - for SASA District meetings - at least 30% of the individuals present.
- R16.2.16 The Chair shall have the discretion to refuse to accept any of the motions of order set out in Section R16.2.14 with the exception of (c).
- R16.2.17 A motion of order "that the vote now be taken" shall only be moved by an individual who has not previously spoken in the debate.
- R16.2.18 If the meeting agrees "That the vote now be taken", the motion or amendment under debate shall be put to the vote after the mover of the motion or amendment has been offered the right of reply.
- R16.2.19 Speakers shall confine their remarks to the proposition under discussion.
- R16.2.20 The Chair shall ensure that where opposition to a motion exists, opportunity shall be given for this opposition to be expressed in debate.
- R16.2.21 The mover of a motion may speak for up to ten minutes. Other speakers will be allowed a maximum of five minutes.
- R16.2.22 Voting for Office-Bearers shall be by secret ballot. The candidate receiving the most votes shall be elected. In the event of a tie Section R16.2.3 shall apply.
- R16.2.23 Voting for motions or amendments shall be by show of hands unless a secret ballot is requested by the Mover or the Meeting. A secret ballot may also be held after a vote by show of hands at the discretion of the Chair.
- R16.2.24 When a vote on a motion or amendment is taken, the Chair shall firstly call for an indication of those in favour of the proposition and secondly those against the proposition. Only when an individual entitled to vote wishes their formal abstention to be recorded shall abstentions be counted.
- R16.2.25 Only the votes of those present at the casting of the votes shall be counted subject to the provisions of Section R16.2.23.
- R16.2.26 Any individual entitled to vote may request a recount.

R16.3 Committee Meetings

- R16.3.1 The Standing orders in this section shall apply to Committee meetings
 - a) SASA
SASA Council
 - b) SASA Districts
Committees
 - c) Company Meetings
Company Board
National Committees
- R16.3.2 The general rule is that any decision made by the committees in Section R16.3.1 must be either a unanimous decision (Section R16.4) or a majority decision (Section R16.5).
- R16.3.3 In the event of there being an equality of votes on a motion which requires a decision (choice) to be made for the continued good governance of Scottish Swimming the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.
- R16.3.4 The Chair’s ruling on questions of order or procedure shall be final unless it is opposed by a majority of members.
- R16.3.5 Speakers shall confine their remarks to the proposition under discussion.
- R16.3.6 The Chair shall ensure that where opposition to a motion exists, opportunity shall be given for this opposition to be expressed in debate.
- R16.3.7 Voting shall be by a show of hands of those present at the casting of votes and eligible to vote.
- R16.3.8 The Chair may allow any individual not entitled to take part in the proceedings and vote to address the meeting.

R16.4 Unanimous Decisions

- R16.4.1 A unanimous decision is taken when all attendees indicate to each other that they share a common view on a matter.
- R16.4.2 A unanimous decision
 - a) may be taken without any discussion between attendees.
 - b) may, but need not, take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each attendee or committee member.
- R16.4.3 If the total number of attendees at a meeting is less than the quorum the meeting must not take any unanimous decision.
- R16.4.4 If a proposed decision of a meeting is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement in which an attendee is interested, that attendee is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for voting or quorum purposes unless the attendee’s interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or the conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.
- R16.4.5 A meeting must keep a record, in writing, of every unanimous decision taken by the meeting.

R16.5 Majority Decisions

- R16.5.1 Where a meeting has a specific rule on the criteria for a majority decision it takes precedence over the rules in this section.
- R16.5.2 No majority decision (other than a decision to call a meeting) shall be taken by a meeting unless a quorum participates in the decision-making process. Where no specified quorum exists for a meeting the number of attendees is taken as the quorum for majority decision making purposes.
- R16.5.3 If the total number of attendees at a meeting is less than the quorum required for majority decision making, the meeting must not take any majority decision.
- R16.5.4 If a proposed decision of a meeting is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement in which an attendee is interested, that attendee is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for voting or quorum purposes unless the attendee’s interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest or the conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.
- R16.5.5 A meeting must keep a record, in writing, of every majority decision taken by the meeting.
